THE COURT ROOM CLEARED

The Judge Holds That Powers Was Connected With the Conspiracy and Refuses Bail.

Frankfort, March 27—There were some startling developments in the Goebel case today. This afternoon W. H. Culton, who waived examination and was held over to the circuit court, went to the Capital hotel, where he was in conference with attorneys for the prosecution for over two hours. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law, E. E Hogg, who is also his attorney. Culton was reported to have made a confession tonight, but later it developed that the information was not as sweeping as thought. His friends admit that he gave the prosecution such information as he had, and which heretofore had not come out.

Henry E. Youtsey, republican auditor Sweeney's clerk, was arrested at noon, and locked up in jail charged with being an accessory to the assassination. He is a half-brother of Hon. L. J. Crawford, a prominent republican of Newport, and detectives arrested him as the man with the black mustache whom Golden mentioned as being given the key to Caleb Powers' office. Youtsey complained that the prosecution had broken faith in arresting him and it is said he is ready to make a public statement for which the prosecution is not anxious at this time.

At today's session of the examining trial of the Republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers, the court room was cleared of all persons except attorneys, newspaper representatives and court officers. The defense announced they would introduce no testimony, and tendering Governor Taylor's pardon of Powers, asked that defendant be dismissed upon the evidence. The commonwealth's attorneys disputed Taylor's right, and the court overruled the motion. Bail was asked for. Judge Moore said:

"It is not my belief that Powers fired the shot which killed Governor Goebel, but from the evidence it is my opinion that he was connected with the conspiracy to kill him. I shall therefore order that the case may be further investigated."

This afternoon Culton's counsel announced that Culton would waive his examining trial and by agreement of the attorneys he will remain at home with his sick wife, under private guard. Captain John Davis also waived examination and was admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000. He was locked up for the night. The democratic militia will be retained here till after the April term of the Circuit court, which begins Monday, and at which Secretary Powers and others are to be tried.

CLERICAL FORCE INCREASED

Refunding Work Heavy—Friends of the Amended Bill Confident.

Washington, March 28—Friends of the amended Porto Rico tariff bill in the senate express entire confidence of their ability to pass it. The contest over free trade or tariff on the island will be transferred to the house where the present indications all point to the defeat of the tariff measure.

It has been found that the present force in the treasury department is inadequate and the force in the office of the treasurer will be increased materially and other divisions connected with the refunding operations and the issue of circulation. Appointments will be made for ninety days.

Morgan introduced an amendment to the Alaska bill providing that the rights and privileges of mining gold in Alaska shall be extended to subjects of Great Britain, England and Russia on the same terms as those countries grant to citizens of the United States in their provinces bordering on the Artic ocean or the Behring sea.

INACTION OVER NOW.

Troops Are Being Pushed Out in a Hurry.

Bloemfontein, March 28—The period of inaction has ended and troops are being pushed to the front with all possible expedition Immense quantities of supplies and stores have accumulated at the railway station. Every preparation is being made to push on without delay.

London, March 28—A despatch from Mazru, Basutoland, Tuesday, and apparently reliable, reports that Boers are re-entering Lady Brand, caused by the presumption that the British troops have crossed the line of Boer retreat toward Kroonsfadt, and that fight or surrender near Lady Brand is imminent.

It is now thought that the reoccupation of Lady Brand by the Boers shows that the British have prevented Olivier's retreat.

JOUBERT REPORTED DEAD.

He Was Growing in Disfavor and Burghers Were Against Him.

London, March 28—A despatch from Lorenzo Marquez says that Joubert, the Boer commander in chief, is dead No details are given. Other reports from Pretoria have said that he was growing in disfavor. It was even stated that the Burghers might kill him if the British reached Pretoria.

Joubert's previous illness is shown in the following despatch from Pretoria of the 26th: "Joubert is confined to his bed, and is seriously ill."

London, March 28, 3:50 p. m.—It is officially reported from Pretoria that Joubert died at eleven thirty last night from stomach trouble.

CONGRATULATES GUILFORD.

The Great Step of Road and Street Improvement Very Significant.

Raleigh Post.

We copy from the Greensboro Record a paper now being circulated in Guilford by the Good Roads Club of that city. Guilford is improving more substantially we believe than any county in the state, save possibly two or three, and equal to these, and no better evidence of such could be given than the spirit, the heroism we may call it, displayed in the above proposition. It is an enlightened appreciation of the demands of the times, and a patriotic purpose to meet these demands. At the same time no additional burden is assumed by the present generation in carrying into effect this great improvement, while the generation following, which will have to meet the debt now created will inherit along with that debt hundreds of thousands of dollars of values, and advantages inestimable which cannot come to them without such improvements. It will be far easier for the next generation to pay the $400,000 involved in this expenditure by the city of Greensboro and the county of Guilford, with the immensely increased advantages obtained thereby than it is for the present generation to plod its way under existing taxation and existing conditions. It is the best move yet undertaken by Guilford; it is a move no county really desiring to improve can afford much longer not to take. In five or six years this system of roads will have been completed, and we venture to say that within ten years from the time of completion or sooner, the industrial and agricultural development of the county and town will have far more than doubled in value.

The tide of capital looking for safe investment is turned southward. Those communities manifesting the highest purposes of improvement along safe and permanent lines, will be the first to arrest much of this moving capital and the energy and enterprise behind it. Agriculture will improve along with other lines of industry, and farm-life will become not only profitable but most attractive.

We greet Greensboro and Guilford, and will rejoice with every additional county whose ente-prising people will permit it to be added to the list.

THE JUNIORS REMINISCENT

The Guilford Survivors of the 3rd Regiment are Preparing a Sketch.

Some of the survivors of the Third Regiment Junior Reserves of Guilford county are comparing reminiscences with each other with a view to getting up matter for a historical sketch of their regiment which saw active service at Bentonville and other points in Eastern North Carolina during Sherman's invasion.

The battle of Bentonville was one of the severest engagements of the war, though it has not been given as much notice.

The survivors of this hot fight living in Greensboro are W. A. Fields, W. R Forbis, J. M. Bandy, George Ledford and Martin Glass. The Telegram hopes to have a short sketch of the regiment, its membership and experiences

Prof. Bandy, before belonging to the Junior Reserves served in the army in 1862-63 as a drummer boy for the 55th N. C., at 14 years of age, being in the battles in Viginia and at Gettysburg.

The Telegram hopes these gentlemen will write the history they have made. North Carolina furnished more troops than any other state in the Confederacy and had more killed and wounded and surrendered more muskets at Appomattox than any other state. North Carolina has more Confederate soldiers buried in Virginia than has any other state of the Confederacy.

Will be Able to Continue the War.

New York, March 28—Among the passengers on the Aller this morning was Webster Davis, the assistant secretary of the Interior. He said there was no foundation for the report that his visit to the Transvaal was of official nature. He believes that the Boers will be able to continue the struggle some time.

Valuable Information.

Frankfort, March 28—It is stated today that Culton's statement yesterday was not in the nature of a confession and not at all of as sweeping character as at first reported. His friends admit he gave the prosecution some valuable information.

FIRE AT HIGH POINT.

Not Much Damage Done—Personal Matters From Our Neighbor.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

High Point, March 28—Miss Venetia Smith, the milliner, will have her spring opening tomorrow and Friday. Miss Cutler, of Baltimore, a trimmer of rare taste, is with her this season. The ladies are cordially invited to inspect her goods.

Alf Sechrest and family, of Gastonia, have been visiting relatives in the city the past few days.

John Stephenson has erected a dwelling in the southern part of the city.

Scott Brown, of Thomasville, was here yesterday on business.

Seborn Perry is now master of the engine that pulls the work train.

Jesse Coltraine, of Coltraine Mills, has seven ewes that are the mother of two lambs each, and all about the same age.

The basement under the High Point House, corner of Rankin and South Main streets, has been torn out and three store rooms are being equipped. This improvement will add much to the appearance of this property.

The Lyon Agency, which will establish an office here, the first of April, has placed Wescott Roberson in charge of their business. A good selection.

Will Underwood, of Asheboro, spent yesterday here.

Wm. A. Ring, the druggest, went to Winston yesterday.

Messrs. J. T. Rose and A. C. Johnson, of Richmond, were in the city yesterday.

Messrs. G. G. Hilliard and R. Deaton, of Asheboro, were city visitors yesterday.

W. N. Rush came up from Jamestown last evening.

E. S. Hutchinson was here last night.

Garner & Co., have about disposed of their stock of goods.

About three o'clock this morning the factory whistle gave a prolonged blast, the warning of which was at once known to all. It was a signal for fire which was located in the eastern part of the city, that section inhabited by colored people. It started in the kitchen of Morris Smith's house and spread to the adjoining building owned by Willis Hinton, Jr., both colored people. Both houses were burned to the ground and but little of the household effects were saved.

Yesterday afternoon as the Asheboro train was near Glenola, coming at full speed this way, a truck under a box car jumped the track and, had not the engineer looked back in time and reversed his engine there might have been a serious accident A shake up and a good deal of dirt raised was the extent of the damage.

THE SEABOARD'S NEW TRAINS.

The First Complete One Passed Through Raleigh this Morning.

News and Observer.

The Seaboard Air Line this morning sent over its system, from Washington to Florida, one of its new Florida and West Indies trains.

It arrived here at 2:07 a. m. as the "Atlanta Special." Notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, it was seen and admired by many people, and was pronounced by all one of the handsomest trains that ever passed through Raleigh.

The train consisted of a mail car, express and baggage car, first and second class coaches and two Pullman's—a solid vestibule train All the cars are painted a very dark maroon—the color of new Pullman cars—and have the latest style of vestibules. Both first and second class cars have smoking compartments.

Rev. J. Q. Adams, who has been pastor of the Wadesboro Baptist church for a period of six years, presented his resignation to the church Sunday morning to take effect April 1st. This resignation was accepted with reluctance by the members of his church. He has accepted a call to the First Baptist church of Reidsville, and will enter upon the discharge of his duties at that point May 1st.

J. I. Bevry Loganton, Pa., writes I am willing to take my oath I that was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure entirely after doctors failed. It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

DID SHE POISON HIM?

A Caldwell County Woman Accused of Poisoning Her Husband.

Lenoir, N. C., March 27—There is quite a sensation in Little River township, not far from Downsville, which is now being investigated by the coroner and the chairman of the board of health. From the information obtained it seems that a Mr. Crews was well on Thursday, having worked all day on his farm, was taken ill on Thursday night and died on Friday, the symptoms indicating a case of poisoning. His body was carried to the grave on Sunday evening for burial, when a protest was made by some of those present who insisted that an examination should be made. The body was then carried to a vacant house, not far distant, and has been guarded since. The wife, who figured as the cause of the blowing up of a shack at a saw mill, and for which Simon Gragg was tried for the murder of Moore and Bowman in Gold township some years ago, is accused of the crime. Whether there is anything to substantiate the charge will be thoroughly investigated.

Can Make One Fight.

Londond, March 28—A belated despatch from Kimberley states that Jailer Uniyton has arrived at Kimberley and reports eigh hundred entrenched there under command of Steen Kamp. They are armed with Martini-Henry rifles and have sufficient ammunition for one fight.

FAMINE AND WAR.

For some weeks there has been an appeal in this paper for help for famine stricken India. Having come across the following article in the New York Sun, written by a correspondent, we present it as a strong contrast:

To to the editor of The Sun—Sir: In your paper this morning you state that an appeal is made to this country to save 5,000,000 persons from starvation in India. At the same time we are informed that there is no lack of anything for the campaign in South Africa—that the British government is sending 5,000 tons of supplies a week and we know spending millions of money for her army there to conquer a feeble state, defending its integrity with heroism that now commands the admiration of the world. Would it not be better to employ her navy in bringing food to her famishing subjects instead of troops from the four quarters of the world?

And this suggests the vast inquiry of what would have been the difference if, say 10 per cent of the wealth that has been expended on and destroyed by war since the Christian era began, had been used for the furtherance of civilizing and philanthropic influences. Such a subject is even too stupendous for the imagination to dwell upon, and it is scarely worth the consideration of anythan those who would waste time in crying over spilled milk.

Recurring to the subject of this clipping, we do not recollect to have seen any statement of what the government of England is doing for the relief of its famishing subjects. Doubtless the people of England are making large private contributions. On the occasions of former famines the government has kept millions from starving, and, indeed, this has been one of the heaviest tasks England has had in India. Whether, in the stress of war, she is doing now what she should, we do not know.

IS IT A BARGAIN?

In the House yesterday there was a spat among the majority over a reference by Mr. Pierce of Tennessee to the alleged assertion by a republican member of congress to a newspaper that the Porto Rico tariff bill would pass as a result of a bargain by which a great campaign fund depended upon itssuccess. The article in question was published in the Washington Star of Saturday, and is as follows:

'The action of the Iowa legislature cannot affect the situation in congress. The deal has been made; it is a matter of money for the campaign, and the tariff measure will be carried through.'

"This statement was made by a republican member of the house who supported the bill in the house by his vote.

"'You may as well set it down that the deal will be carried out,' he added. 'The carrying out of the recommendation of the president for free trade with Porto Rico would have deprived the party of a very considerable contribution; the adoption of the reverse policy insures a very large contribution.

"The possible unpopularity of the Porto Rican tariff was balanced against the certainty of money to use in the campaign, and the decision was in favor of the campaign contribution. It was not expected that the storm of protest would be as strong as it is, but it is now too late for a change."

It's no wonder that there was a "sharp exchange" yesterday when the matter was brought up by Mr. Pierce's reading of the affirmation of the Star of its statement, and Mr. Hanna's denial of it. There has been nothing so disheartening in national politics for a long time as this tariff bill episode. The country is largely in a frame of mind to believe there is something rotten in it all, and this statement comes with altogether to much authenticity to be passed over lightly. We had believed, and it looked reasonable, that this wonderful action of the republican congressmen in making the president abandon his position of free trade for the island, and converting a free trade bill into a tariff measure, was for the purpose of preventing a precedent being set up that would trouble the republican party in its future dealing with other possessions as well as in its coming campaign. The fact that they were ready to turn the money thus collected back to Porto Rico seemed to warrant this view. But since this new charges has sprung up, and made so boldly and definitely, it is easy to see that the fact that the money is to be turned back does not antagonize the charge of corruption.

It is a serious matter to make a charge of this kind against a body of men or against individuals who have been entrusted with the nation's business, and for one we deplore the conconditions that have made them seem all too plausible. Commenting upon the charge that there is corruption, The Washington Post says:

If this be the case; if Porto Rico is to be sacrificed to the sordid uses of a political contest; if these innocent and trustful people, who welcomed us with opened hands and confided their destinies to our honor and generosity, are to be immolated on the altar of a detestable and mean party emergency; if it be true that the republican congress, backed by the republican administration, deliberately intend to trade upon the misery and helplessness of a people who have thrown themselves upon our mercy, then we say—and we believe—that the country will make haste to denounce and to condemn and to rebuke an infamy so monstrous and so indefensible.

MAMMOTH HOTEL BUILDING.

MR. W. C. BAIN, OF GREENSBORO, THE CONTRACTOR.

"The Carolina" at Pinehurst, Contains 684 Rooms and Closets—Biggest Thing in the State.

A short time ago a Telegram man made a brief visit to Pinehurst, the winter resort built and established in the sand hills and piney woods of Southern Moore county, and has deferred a report of what he saw, awaiting some points by which he could give a comprehensive idea of the size and magnitude of the new hotel there, now in course of construction and nearing completion—"The Carolina," a cut of which is presented with this sketch. The writer, though claiming Moore county as his native heath, and being proud of the claim, was surprised to find such a beautiful village where there is only sand to build upon and where only pine, black jack and wire grass used to grow. It is, as it were the transforming of a desert into an oasis, speaking from the standpoint in which that section was regarded twenty years ago, for then the ground was thought to be only fit to hold the earth together. It was not even considered good to walk on or to drive turpentine wagons over, the sand was so deep. But visit Pinehurst now! There is a village of beautiful cottages and well appointed and managed hotels, all full of people who flock there to avoid the chilling winters of New England and the Northern states.

"The Carolina" hotel, of which we intend to speak principally in this sketch, is now nearing completion. Mr. W. C. Bain, of this city, is the contractor for this mammoth structure. That it is a mammoth structure, you shall presently see, requiring not several car loads of material, as in ordinary buildings, but hundreds of car loads. Mr. Bain was awarded the contract in a competitive contest, and only about six months ago began the work. When the figures to be given in this article are considered it will be seen that the work handled by Mr. Bain in six months is little short of marvelous. The lumber for The Carolina was furnished by Mr. E. E. Bain, lumber dealer, of this city, a son of the contractor. About three hundred car loads of building material went into The Carolina, of which 175 car loads was lumber, furnished by our esteemed young townsman. Of the other materials we notice: about 50 car loads of brick for foundation and chimneys; between two and three car loads of terra cotta lining for flues; over one car load of building paper alone at a cost of $1,000; in the item of tin roofing we find 64,500 square feet.

THE MAIN BUILDING.

The main building of The Carolina is 281 feet wide and 375 feet long, not including a large music hall, which is now being constructed and is not in Mr. Bain's contract. The main building is four stories high—the central part five stories—and contains 684 rooms and closets. There are 3,000 feet of corridors from seven to twelve feet wide. The building contains large passenger and freight elevators, operated by electricity, besides three main stairways. There are five fire escapes, constructed of iron and of the best known make. The entire floor space is 133,000 square feet, which would cover an area of between three and four acres. This is not counting the kitchen, basements and attics.

In the building there are 1,137 doors and 906 large windows. It required a car load of sash weights to hang the windows. Around the front part of the hotel there are 550 lineal feet of porch sixteen feet wide. The main parlor is 35x46 feet; the billiard room is 41x46: the lobby 50x70; the main dining room is 41x146; the dining room annex 41x60. Then there is the Dutch room, the ladies' waiting room, the reception room, the writing and smoking rooms, the barber shop, coat rooms, telegraph office, private and main offices of the hotel, and sixteen large rooms en suite. All of the above, including about forty closets, gentlemen's lavatory, etc., are on the first floor. There are two public bath and toilet rooms on each floor, and forty-three baths en suite.

The entire building is finished in the most modern and tasty styles known to the woodworking art, and the work is a great credit to the contractor. The whole building is lighted by electricity and heated by a steam plant about one-fourth of a mile away. About forty of the rooms have been occupied, and it is believed they would all have been full this season had the building been finished in time. There is to be a telephone system all over the big house, reaching all the principal rooms. On top of the building and concealed by a beautifully turned tower and observatory is a large reservoir for the hotel water supply, which is furnished from clear-flowing artesian wells.

During the summer workmen will be engaged in painting, papering and frescoing, so that the next season will find The Carolina fully equipped and open for the pleasure and comfort of guests, with rich and elegant furnishings.

THE KITCHEN.

The kitchen proper is 40 x 70 feet with a basement the same size. The equipment in this department is up-to-date. There is a range, perhaps 30 feet long, and a dutch oven as large as the furnace in a big factory. There are six or eight additional rooms, all fitted up to the queen's taste. Meat grinders and choppers, bread mixers, ice cream freezers, ice crushers, etc., will all be operated by electricity.

THE HELP BUILDING.

The building for the servants and help around the big hotel is 34 x 74 feet, three stories and a basement, containing about 35 rooms. This building is also constructed upon modern plans, with steam heat and electric lights.

THE MANAGEMENT.

The management of such a hotel as is described above must be in the hands of a man of no small capacity. Mr. Bain, in answer to a query on this subject, said he believed the right man had been secured in the person of Mr. H. W. Priest, who, during the past six years, has been manager of the Highland Park Hotel, Aiken, S.C., the Magnolia Hotel, Mass., the Pine Forest Inn, Summerville, S. C., and the Preston Hotel, Beach Bluff, Mass. Mr. Priest is now in Pinehurst, directing the furnishing and equipment of The Carolina, and will leave nothing undone that will add to the pleasure and comfort of future guests.

Mr. James W. Tufts, of Boston, is the founder and owner of Pinehurst, and also the projector, builder and owner of The Carolina, which is one one of the largest hotels in the country. Mr. Tufts is a pleasant, modest gentleman, and has made many friends in the south. As stated, he has wrought wonders in a supposedly barren sand hill region. Pinehurst is a beautiful village and shows a perfect net work of drives and walks, laid out in the most artistic manner along which are thriving luxurant growths of native and foreign plants and shrubs; and hundreds of thousands more are being placed along the newly made avenues around and about the magnificent Carolina.

The Effect of Higher Criticism.

New York Tribune.

Rev. Dr Hillis, of Brooklyn, the other day told a story showing the unsettling effects of the higher criticism. It fell to his lot to attend the funeral of a negro, sharing the service with a colored minister. As the two were riding to the cemetery the brother in black suddenly asked Dr. Hillis how he got along at his church with the higher criticism. Dr. Hillis replied that it was not a disturbing element at Plymouth. "Well," said his companion, "It's making things pretty hot at our church. One of my deacons, who is down on it, comes to prayer meeting and prays, 'O Lord, bless our pastor and help him to bring old treasures out of the word,' while another deacon, who believes in it, follows him and prays, 'O Lord, bless our pastor and help him to bring new treasures out of the Word,' and betwixt those two deacons and the Lord they keep me black, and blue." Dr. Hillis naively added that he supposed the deacons kept the minister blue, while the Lord kept him black.

MURDER IN GREENVILLE COUNTY.

A Man Killed His Brother-in-Law in a Row Over a Cart.

Special to News and Observer.

Weldon, N. C., March 27—Information was received here today of another murder in Greenville county, Va. It seems that Mr. Benjamin Owen and his brother-in-law, named Story, became involved in a difficulty over the ownership of a cart. Story loaded his gun and said he would kill Owen. He went over to Owen's farm and it is said he began to curse and abuse Owen, when the latter caught hold of Story's gun with one hand and with the other knocked him down. Story got up and shot Owen in the shoulder and as Owen turned his back Story fired a load of buckshot into his back and then escaped. Owen lingered until Friday and died in great agony. Story married Owen's sister.

FIVE MEN SHOT AT HOT SPRINGS.

The Mountain Town Terror-Striken by Desperadoes.

Charlotte Observer.

Asheville, March 27—It is reported here that a drunken fight at Hot Springs, forty miles west of here, this evening, five men were shot, some very seriously. The stores are closed and the whole town is terror-stricken.

A MEMORY OF BROOK FARM.

Hawthorne In a Pillow Fight With Two Girls.

I do not recollect Hawthorne's talking much at the table, says Mrs. Ora Gannett Sedgwick in The Atlantic in "A Girl of Sixteen at Brook Farm." Indeed he was a very taciturn man. One day, tired of seeing him sitting immovable on the sofa in the hall, as I was learning some verses to recite at the evening class for recitation formed by Charles A. Dana, I daringly took my book, pushed it into his hands and said, "Will you hear my poetry, Mr. Hawthorne?" He gave me a sidelong glance from his very shy eyes, took the book and most kindly heard me. After that he was on the sofa every week to hear me recite.

He was one evening alone in the hall, sitting on a chair at the farther end, when my roommate, Ellen Slade, and myself were going up stairs. She whispered to me, "Let's throw the sofa pillows at Mr. Hawthorne." Reaching over the banisters, we each took a cushion and threw it. Quick as a flash he put out his hand, seized a broom that was hanging near him, warded off our cushions and threw them back with sure aim. As fast as we could throw them at him he returned them with effect, hitting us every time, while we could hit only the broom. He must have been very quick in his movements. Through it all not a word was spoken. We laughed and laughed, and his eyes shone and twinkled like stars with laughter. Wonderful eyes they were, and when anything witty was said I always looked quickly at Mr. Hawthorne, for his dark eyes lighted up as if flames were suddenly kindled behind them, and then the smile came down to his lips.

We laughed merrily and went off to bed, vanquished, without a word. I suppose Mr. Hawthorne's face must have worn that wonderful smile, which always seemed suddenly kindled behind his eyes, twinkled there for a second and then ran swiftly over his intensely grave face.

WOOD PULP POULTICES.

Their Ready Application Is Only One of Their Many Advantages.

A United States naval surgeon advocates the substitution of wood pulp sheets for flaxseed meal, etc., in making poultices. He cuts a sheet of the pulp to a size approximate to the surface to be covered, soaks the sheet in hot water until it has become thoroughly softened, then wrings it out very lightly and applies. The wood pulp sheet will absorb and hold from four to five times its weight of water and, since heat and moisture are the desiderata in poultices, this furnishes them in simple, cleanly form. No cloths are needed, no cooking, no stirring and spreading on cloth—just a soaking in hot water. And the nicest part is the total absence of the mess inevitable in making flaxseed meal poultices, although there is, too, a great economy of time and trouble. It is sometimes advisable to put a piece of oiled muslin over the sheet to help retain the heat and moisture.

When the poultice begins to get cold, take it off, wring out the water and soak it again in hot water, and so on indefinitely. The surgeon has used the same sheet of pulp wood for two days' poulticing, in the hands of an ignorant man at that, his instructions to him being "to soak the plaster in hot water whenever it got cold and put it on again." By the way, every physician who has had the annoyance and trouble of being compelled to leave the all important matter of poulticing to an ignorant person will appreciate a way that will allow no loophole for mistakes and failures.—Philadelphia Record.

Curious Historical Document.

The charter in which the church was first granted tithes in England is a curious historical document. A literal translation follows: "I, Ethelwolfe, by the grace of God, King of the West Saxons with the advice of the Bishops, Earls and all persons of distinction in my dominions, have, for the health of my soul, the good of my people, and the prosperity of my kingdom, taken the honourable resolution of granting the tenth part of the lands throughout my whole kingdom to the Church and Ministers of religion, to be enjoyed by them, with all the privilege of a free tenure, and discharged from all the incumbrances incident to lay-fees. This grant has been made by us in honour of Jesus Christ, the Blessed Virgin, and all Saints, and out of regard to the Pascal solemnity, and that Almighty God might vouchsafe his blessings on us and on our posterity. Dated at Wilton, Ann. Dom. 854, at the Feast of Easter."

Geological Time.

An ingenious theory for the estimation of the time of the various geological periods has been propounded by an engineer whose work on western railroads takes him into primitive country. He says that in one great depression in Wyoming the trees have been recording the rate of erosion of the slopes for about 300 years so accurately that the data to be obtained by a careful study of them will be a factor of extreme importance in enabling scientists to convert geological time into years. While he has not yet had time to collect those data properly, he makes the rough deduction that, according to their records the pliocene and pleistocene periods would represent about 1,500,000 years, and that, on this basis, the cenizoic time would be about 4,000,000 years. This would mean that all geological time from the beginning of the Cambrian epoch would be 64,000,000 years.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Rev. E. W. Sitzer, W. Caton, N.Y., writes: "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it helped me from the start. I believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat. Howard Gardner.

COLD STEEL, OR DEATH

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is by an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wisconsin, by her doctor, after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous powers of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price fifty cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

SCROFULA AND ITS AWFUL HORRORS
—CURED BY—
Johnston's Sarsaparilla
QUART BOTTLES.
A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Grand Old Lady Gives Her Experience.

Mrs. Thankful Orilla Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the great war, in Hebron, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more marvelous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cursed and is cursing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in neary every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or goitre, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. I was in a miserable condition, I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abcesses were beginning to form. I at length was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and his famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, and I have never been troubled with scrofula since. Of course an old lady of 83 years is not a young woman, but I have had remarkably good health since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not lok to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

There's a greater demand made on the strength of the mother when nursing than at any other time. She has just gone through the shock and strain of maternity, her vitality is at its lowest and the food she eats must nourish two lives.

The natural result is that the mother looks around for a "tonic," and generally finds her tonic in the form of a stimulant, which not only gives the mother no real strength but is an injury to the child.

It is the concurrent testimony of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that it is the most perfect preparation for motherhood and all its functions which has ever been discovered. It prepares the way for baby's advent, giving the organs of birth vigor and elasticity. It establishes such a condition of health that nervousness, anxiety and morning sickness are unknown. With this condition comes a healthy flow of nourishment for the child, which enables the mother to gratify the fondest instinct of maternity.

"Two years ago I used two bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and in April a nice baby was born, before the doctor came," writes Mrs. Katie Aulliker, of 754 Pat Street, Allliance, Ohio. "I was not very sick. Baby is now 14 months old and weighs 30 pounds. Now I expect another about August, and I am again taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and feel very well. Several neighbors are using Dr. Pierce's medicine through my telling them about it. One lady says, before commencing Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I had to vomit every day, but after I got the medicine, from the first spoonful that I took, I stopped vomiting. It has done the same thing for me. It is a God-send for women."

No alcohol in any form, is contained in "Favorite Prescription," neither opium nor other narcotics. This cannot truthfully be said of any other medicine especially designed for women and sold through druggists.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of all charge. Every letter is treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential, and all replies are enclosed in plain envelopes, bearing no printed matter whatever. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

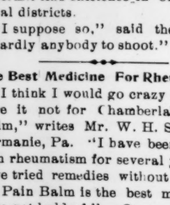
WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.



HOWELL, IND., Nov. 26.

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhœa. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable.

And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

Sanitary Ordinance.

Be it ordained by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Greensboro, N. C.,

That the health ordinance passed by the board on the twenty-third day of June, 1899, be amended by adding thereto the following:

1. That no person shall remove any excremental deposits from the city or act as scavenger of privies without using specially prepared odories, watertight carts lined with metal and without running at least three carts.

2 That no scavenger shall empty his wagon inside the city or within one half mile of the corporate limits.

3. That it shall be unlawful for any person to fail or refuse to have his privy cleaned and the excrement removed from his premises at least once every two weeks.

4. That the following shall be the maximum amount charged for each removal of excrement, viz:

Private Residences.....10 cents
Hotels and Boarding Houses..20 cents
Factories, Schools and Warehouses.....30 cents

5. That there shall be a license tax of ten dollars on the business of scavenger per year, and it shall be unlawful for any person to act as scavenger of privies or to make a business of removing excrement without obtaining a license therefor.

6. That it shall be the duty of all scavengers to report to the sanitary officer or police officers all persons who fail or refuse to have their privies cleaned as hereinbefore required, and it shall be unlawful for any scavenger to refuse to clean any privy when requested to do so and when the maximum price is offered.

7. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined five dollars.

8. That this ordinance shall be in force from and after the the first day of May, 1900.

By order of the Board.

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remdy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold, which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—B. S. Edwards, publisher of the Review, Wyatt, Ill. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

An emu's egg omelette was the treat provided by a London naturalist for his friends. The contents of the egg, which was found recently in Australia, weighed two pounds. Crocodiles' eggs were also served.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. drogist.

Queen Victoria's chocolate boxes have already saved one life. At Estcourt a Mauser bullet struck a box which a private in the Second Lancashire carried in his haversack and remained imbedded in the chocolate.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sel Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price. 50c.

FORESHADOWINGS.

We may not look across the misty cliffs
Or hear or feel the breath of passing wings,
Yet seen and unseen waves their fringes white
And nature teems with clear foreshadowings.

Not in wild storms of crashing thunder rung,
But in deep silences that brood about,
Without a word from lisping lip or tongue
She cheers the faith that wrestles with a doubt.

From brown cocoons the winds have tossed and whirled,
Broad wings of gold beat up the viewless air,
And dry seed germs that wander round the world
Are quick with strange unfoldings rich and rare.

The sharded beetle bred in marshy fen
Transfigured soars above his riven shell
On flashing wings before the gaze of men,
A royal birth, a living truth as well.

And still, sweet voices speak the ages through;
No germ is lost, but lives forevermore.
The seed unfolds to fairer life anew,
And from the dust strong pinions mount and soar.

RINGS ON YELLOW PINES.

Two Circles of New Fiber Blending Into One Mark Each Year.

"It is very curious to note the successive growth circles of our yellow pines," said a veteran lumberman from the Pearl river district. "Until my attention was especially directed to the subject by a forestry expert a few years ago I had no idea that the markings were so beautifully clear and distinct. The tree acquires two rings of new fiber every year, one in the spring and one in the fall, but they blend together and form a single, well defined circle.

"During the first ten years these successive accumulations are of about equal thickness, and for the next two decades the diminution is very slight, but after that the rings become thinner and thinner, and when the tree gets into the eighties and nineties the growth is very slight indeed—in fact, a mere film. Nevertheless the ring is always formed as long as the tree lives and can be clearly discerned with a glass after it ceases to be visible to the naked eye.

"During the visit of the expert to whom I referred we cut a good deal of timber on my place ranging between 16 and 18 inches in diameter. That tree is 125 years old,' he would say, 'that one is 100, that is about 140,' and so on. Afterward we measured the growth rings with the instruments he carried, and in every instance he had hit the age within a few years. It seemed wonderful, but was simply the result of experience combined with an accurate eye.

"There are some very ancient pine trees in the Pearl river district, and many of them figure in the traditions and folklore of the settlers in their neighborhood. There are a couple of such patriarchs on a tract near my mill, and when the standing timber of the place was recently sold I am glad to say they were especially excepted in the terms of the contract. It would have seemed like murder to some of the country folks if they had been cut down."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Performed Too Well.

"The man whom I shall marry," said the proud beauty, "must perform three tasks."

"Name the first," said the lover.

"Go and umpire a ball game."

He bowed and departed.

After two months he returned, having been discharged from the hospital cured.

"Name the second task," he said.

"Go and act as judge of the Asbury Park baby show."

Again he departed.

In a week he presented himself again.

"I owe my life to the Jersey police," he said. "Name the third task."

"Attend a meeting of a bicycle club and state which, in your opinion, is the best make of wheel."

He went and he returned.

"Dearest," he said, "I am still in the ring. At last you will be mine!"

"I have changed my mind," said the maiden. "In the first place, I could not marry a man of your present personal appearance. In the second place, I should be afraid to marry a man with such a record for pugnacity. Forgive me."

After thinking the matter over he forgave her. He thought he might as well do so.

And so they were not married.—Brooklyn Life.

A Spelling Competition.

The other day Jones said to Brown, "I'll bet you anything you like you can't spell three simple words I'll give you within 20 seconds."

"I'll go you. What are they?" said Brown.

"Well, here goes," Jones said as he pulled out his watch. "Believe."

"B-e-l-i-e-v-e."

"Receive."

"R-e-c-e-i-v-e," again Brown spelled.

"Wrong!" said Jones.

"What?" exclaimed Brown in surprised tones. "I've spelled the two words you gave me correctly. I'm certainly not"—

"Time's up!" Jones said triumphantly. "Why didn't you spell the third word—w-r-o-n-g?"

Advantages of Yawning.

"Not only is it healthy to yawn," says a French physician, "but artificial yawning should be resorted to in cases of sore throat, buzzing of the ears, catarrh and like trouble." It is said to be as efficacious in its way as gargling the throat, with which process it should be combined.

The chapel of St. Helena at Bethlehem contains 44 marble columns which were taken from Mount Moriah and supposed to have been in the porches of the temple.

Chinese streets are the narrowest in the world. Some of them are only three feet wide.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

RHEUMATISM

Distorts Muscles, Shatters Nerves, Stiffens Joints.

Is due to an acid poison which gains access to the blood through failure of the proper organs to carry off and keep the system clear of all morbid, effete matter. This poison through the general circulation is deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves, causing the most intense pain.

Rheumatism may attack with such suddenness and severity as to make within a few days a healthy, active person helpless and bed-ridden, with distorted limbs and shattered nerves; or it may be slow in developing, with slight wandering pains, just severe enough to make one feel uncomfortable; the tendency in such cases is to grow worse, and finally become chronic.

Like other blood diseases, Rheumatism is often inherited, and exposure to damp or cold, want of proper food, insufficient clothing, or anything calculated to impair the health, will frequently cause it to develop in early life, but more often not until middle age or later. In whatever form, whether acute or chronic, acquired or inherited, Rheumatism is Strictly a Blood Disease, and no liniment or other external treatment can reach the trouble. Neither do the preparations of potash and mercury, and the various mineral salts, which the doctors always prescribe, cure Rheumatism, but ruin the digestion and break down the constitution.

A remedy which builds up the general health and at the same time rids the system of the poison is the only safe and certain cure for Rheumatism. S. S. S., made of roots, herbs and barks of wonderful solvent, purifying properties, attacks the disease in the right way, and in the right place—the blood—and quickly neutralizes the acid and dissolves all poisonous deposits, stimulates and reinforces the overworked, worn-out organs, and clears the system of all unhealthy accumulations. S. S. S. cures permanently and thoroughly, and keeps the blood in a pure, healthy state.

Mr. J. O. Malley, 123 W. 15th Street, Indianapolis, Ind., for eighteen months was so terribly afflicted with Rheumatism he was unable to feed or dress himself. Doctors said his case was hopeless. He had tried fifty-two prescriptions that friends had given him, without the slightest relief. A few bottles of S. S. S. cured him permanently, and he has never had a rheumatic pain since. This was five years ago.

We will send free our special book on Rheumatism, which should be in the hands of every sufferer from this torturing disease. Our physicians have made blood and skin diseases a life study, and will give you any information or advice wanted, so write them fully and freely about your case. We make no charge whatever for this service. Address, SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. H. E. Clement, of Thomasville, hardwood and veneering manufacturer, was in the city today. He is looking for a location to establish another mill.

Gen. J. S. Carr, of Durham, was here this morning returning home. He has almost fully recovered from the injuries he sustained by a fall in New York about two weeks ago.

Mrs. L. C. Phillips, of Atlanta, is visiting the family of her brother-in-law, R. M. Phillips, on South Elm street. She has been sperding some days with her mother and other relatives in Raleigh and Durham.

Another Lumber Company.

Messrs. G. C. Hampton and E. I. Pool, of this city, have formed a copartnership for engaging in the business of manufacturers and wholesale commission dealers in lumber. The firm name is Hampton & Pool, place of business, Greensboro. We wish them success.

Mr. Scott's Lodger.

While on his way to dinner yesterday, Mr. J. W. Scott was accosted by a little darkey with "Mister, give me five cents to buy some bread with." "Where is your father?" asked Mr. Scott. The reply brought forth the fact that he was an orphan. "Where do you sleep?" asked Mr. Scott. "I sleeps in Mr. J. W. Scott's boxes," was the reply. Mr. Scott gave him a nickel and passed on. Doubtless he would be surprised could he know to how many homeless wanderers his goods boxes at the rear of his store give shelter. Almost any morning little darkies and sometimes men may be seen crawling from them.

STILL GROWING.

The Carpet Mills Enlarge and Will Spin Their Own Yarns.

The Van Deventer Carpet mills, which have already doubled the number of their looms for weaving will still further enlarge their plant by putting in spindles. This is in order that they may be able to spin their own yarns. They will probably move their spinning plant from Plainfield, N. J., to Greensboro. This means a decided enlargement of their present building.

The Telegram rejoices to hear of the prosperity of the industries situated in an around Greensboro.

CONVICTS SHOT BY THE GUARD.

ONE OF THEM IS DEAD AND ANOTHER MAY DIE.

Three Men Make a Break for Liberty and Only One Escapes—Trouble at the Camp Near Gibsonville.

News reached the city this morning of the attempted escape of three men who were serving sentences on the road force, of Guilford county. They were returning to the camp from work near Gibsonville last night, shortly after six o'clock when the three men mentioned, L. E. Eppes, white, A. J. Cook, white, and John Taylor, colored, made a break for the woods. The command to halt was given, but not heeded. Two shots were then fired by the guards, one from a shot gun and the other from a rifle. The shot gun failed to reach the fleeing men, but the rifle ball dropped John Taylor, passing entirely through his body and striking Cook, one of the white men, who ran for some distance and fell, calling for some one to come and get him.

Taylor lived about three hours and died. At first it was not thought that Cook was seriously injured, but about noon today the report reached town that he was not expected to live, and Dr. Rierson, county physician, was telegraphed to come to the camp at once. He went down on the noon train. The third man, Eppes, made good his escape.

Eppes is the man who was sent to the road some time ago for stealing cloth goods from the Finishing Mills, which he sold right here in Greensboro. His family is still here and there is a belief that he has several hundred dollars in money hid somewhere abuot the city. It is thought this may embolden him to expose himself to recapture. Cook is the man who forged a check on J. F. Yates, and was recently sent out to the roads. Taylor, the man through whom the fatal bullet first passed, is the negro who attempted to strike Policeman Whittington with a bar of iron when he was arrested in the grove near Mr. R. R. King's, several weeks ago.

FOR STEALING PIGS.

John Sellars Arrested This Morning. Trial This Afternoon.

John Sellars, colored, who has been in troubie before, was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Weatherly and Policeman Whittington on a warrant charging him with the theft of two pigs from Mr. S. F. White, who lives near the Battle Ground. Sellars was tried for his life two or thre years ago for killing Sam Brooks, and acquitted.

On last Thursday night one of the pigs disappeared from Mr. White's premises, and on Monday night the other came up missing. In some way Sellars was suspicioned of the theft and search revealed the fact that whether or not he was the thief the pigs were concealed in his crib at his home out beyond Warnersville. Sellars has a horse with a peculiar foot and by this he was tracked to Mr. White's piggery. This seemed to fasten him, and a warrant was issued by 'Squire Pritchett, before whom he was tried this afternoon.

Sellars claimed that his boy George Sellars, brought the pigs to his place and claimed he had bought them. Sellars' wife was summoned, but said her heart was broken entirely, and refused to testify for or against anybody, saying that she did not know anything about the pigs. She reproached her old man with the statement that she was tired of "appearing" for him in court.

The trial before the justice resulted in binding both the father and the son over to court in bonds of $200 each, which they failed to give. Each tried to saddle the other with the theft, and Officer Pearce testified that he saw them both together in a buggy coming from the direction of Mr. White's about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. This was a clincher, and on to court they were sent, while Mr. White carried the pigs back home.

FEDERAL COURT MATTER

Will Probably be a Vote on Appropriation this Week.

The Telegram learns that a vote will probably be reached this week on the appropriation to enlarge the federal court building in this city. It now seems that another court, with two terms a year, will be established, and that Winston will get it. The delegation from this city who went to Washington last week to investigate the matter, were assured by the authorities there that the court for Winston would in no way interfere with the regular terms of the federal court in this city.

One member, of the delegation, Mr. A. L. Brooks, was seen by a reporter this morning, and gives it as his belief that the establishment of a court in Winston will not have any bearing upon the bill appropriating an amount sufficient to provide ample accommodations for the court in this city, but that the bill will pass when it comes to a vote.

India Relief Fund.

It is about four months before they can expect any rain in India. How much suffering and how many deaths will occur! Let us out of gratitude to our heavenly Father for our abundance give something to these poor suffering ones. Our Savior said, "Give that asketh thee," and these starving ones are looking to christian America for help. Shall we dissappoint them and shatter their faith in our religion. Why not take collections in churches, Sunday schools, Christian Endeavor societies, leagues, etc.

Remember you can leave your offering with Mrs. F. E. Ross, treasurer, who will gladly accept and forward for you.

ENTITLED TO THE NAME.

Brief Locals, Picked Up on the Streets Today.

Mr. Tom Rice has thirteen Black Minorca eggs on exhibition in his show window.

The many friends of Mr. Zeb Crutchfield will regret to learn that he is on the sick list at Crey.

It is learned today that the negroes carried to Mebane yesterday for housebreaking were released.

Mr. George R. Dupuy and family, who have been boarding with L. Richardson, have gone to housekeeping, 425 Church street.

The brick sidewalk in front of the Benbow was taken up and relaid today. It had become worn and uneven from years of constant use.

It is announced that Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith, of this city, will preach a week before the University of Virginia, beginning the 30th of April.

Rt. Rev. Jos. Blount Chesire, bishop of North Carolina, will preach and confirm at St. Andrew's church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. M.

Next Saturday is the last day allowed by law for the payment of city taxes. Mr. Rees, the tax collector has given fair warning to all and wants everybody to settle up without giving any one any trouble.

Mr. E. A. Armfield, of Monroe, came up to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Jane Armfield, yesterday, with whom he used to live, at the old home place in this county. Mr. Armfield is the clerk of the superior court of Union county.

The delay in getting in the new machinery at the Greensboro Steam Laundry, Mr. Dick says, is caused by the failure of the manufacturers to get the machines made in the time promised. He is hurrying them and hopes soon to receive them.

The Ottumwas will be here tomorrow night. The entertainment will begin promptly at 8:15, doors open at 7:30. This is the attraction that was advertised for March 9th in the Peoples Course. If you like good music you will not be disappointed if you go tomorrow night.

J. H. Shaw, who far many years was connected with the firm of J. W. Scott & Co., but who for three years has been in business in Pennsylvania will open an up-to-date grocery store in the A. L. Rankin building just beyond the railroad. The Telegram joins "Bud's" many friends in wishing him much success.

CHANGED GREETINGS.

The Telegram and San Francisco Examiner Passed the time of Day Last Night.

A Telegram man stepped into the Postal Telegraph company's office last night and casually asked the operator for a specimen of quick delivery in long distance work. W. B. Leonard, the operator, sent the following impromptu message from here to the San Francisco, Cal., "Examiner" over the Postal's lines via Richmond, New York and Chicago. This message left Greensboro at 8:42 p. m., and was received in San Francisco at 8:45, three minutes in transmission. An answer over the same route was received here at 9.06 p. m., making a distance by wire of over 8700 miles in 24 minutes. The time as given is eastern (our time). By sun time the message left here after dark and got to San Francisco some time before sun set. The following are the messages:

At Washington Street Church

"He saved others, himself he cannot save," was Mr. Wildman's subject at Washington street church last night. It was a sermon of unusual power. There was not one, perhaps, in the large congregation who did not thoroughly enjoy it. Such preaching is sure to result in great good. In this day when the world is filled with "every wind of doctrine," it is delightful to hear the old gospel preached with such tenderness and power. There was a large congregation last night, which showed its appreciation of the sermon by the close attention given the preacher. Services are held daily at 3:30 in the afternnoon and 8 at night.

Paid For Their Fun.

Chief Scott this morning arrested three bootblacks, Hoy Payne, Arthur Bitting and Al Horton, whom he found scuffling on the sidewalk near the Benbow on Sycamore street. Two of them had the other one down attempting to tie him, and a lady coming along had to get out in the street to pass them. Three dollars apiece said the mayor, and nine dollars went into the treasury.

As the boys paid their fines one of them said, "there goes nine dollars thrown away." "Not thrown away," said the chief, "it will help to make better sidewalks for you to scuffle and fight on in the future."

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price is now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
